LOCAL NEWS.

Engine Co. No. 1 held a street drill Saturday night.

The volcano Kilauea is reported to be quite active.

Last Saturday night the police raided a Chinese wash house on King street and captured seven tins of opium.

Mr. William Jarrett bought a house on Fort street at the auction sale of L. J. Levey on last Saturday for $2,700.

It was quite lively around our streets from midnight till a o'clock this morning on account of the P. M. S. S. Australia from the Colonies.

The Italian man-of-war steamed out of the harbor yesterday afternoon about three o'clock and is now cradled in the bosom of the deep blue sea.

We take pleasure in announcing that Mr. William Wall, pitcher of the Oceanics is not the Wm. Wall who was fined in the police court the other day for trying to "knock out" a gin bottle.

Quite a number of the sailors and some of the officers of the British man-of-war were having a quiet time around town last night. They all went aboard ship before half-past eleven o'clock.

The late arrival of the Australia this morning was due to the fact that she was detained some six hours in Auckland beyond her starting time from that place, repairing some broken machinery.

Last Saturday afternoon a horse ran away with a cart on Beretania street near the residence of Mr. Burgess and succeeded so well that he scattered pieces of the cart along the road for half a mile and demolished a set of harness.

Yesterday afternoon a Japanese was seen to enter a Chinese dry goods grocery-etc. shop and call for a cigar. He fumbled around his highland suit for at least five minutes for the amount due and to his astonishment only found a button. Times must be hard with the Japs.

Last night shortly before seven o'clock a fire occurred in the front part of the Chinese Church on Fort street which would have proved serious had it not been for the prompt action of the Chinamen in extinguishing it. The fire was put out with hand buckets without turning in an alarm.

It seems that burglars are at work on Hawaii as well as here. An attempt was lately made at Mr. Lidgate's plantation to break open the safe. A few days afterwards the head overseer's house was entered and about one hundred dollars' worth of jewelry was taken. An attempt was also made to get into the store-house, but failed.

The P. M. S. S. Australia arrived at the wharf this morning at a quarter-past twelve o'clock and left for San Francisco at three o'clock. As she left the Colonies the same day the Alameda left San Francisco she brought no later news. There were 54 passengers aboard for San Francisco and one, Mr. George Edwards, for Honolulu.

In our advertising columns the Geo. W. De Long Post G. A. R. announces by the Post commander, Dr. N. B. Emerson, that the lecture by Major Dane for the benefit of the W. C. T. U. and the De Long Post, which was announced to take place at Fort-street Church, will be held this evening at the Y. M. C. A. Hall at half past seven o'clock.

Saturday afternoon last two of His Majesty's six-oared boats had a racing bout from the spar buoy to the Royal Boat House. His Majesty was in command of the winning boat. Both boats were manned with picked crews and both crews did some good pulling. The natives seem to do better work by themselves than when pulling against the white crews.

About two o'clock this morning while a baggage express wagon was taking a load of potatoes to the Australia, driving rapidly down Fort street, one of the boxes fell off and scattered "spuds" all over the street. The expressman proceeded to pick them up one at a time and could be heard for a block away "talking French" about the Road Supervisor.

Mr. "Muldoon" who keeps the Oysters-in-every-style house on Nuuanu street, declares that when the last steamer arrived from San Francisco, he was obliged to hire guards to keep the Chinamen back while His Majesty was helping eat up his oysters. Whether the compliment was intended to the King or the oysters deponent sayeth not. Mr. "Muldoon" is the same man who avers he fell from the cross-trees on the main-mast of a ship clean through the main hatch without hurting himself.

Yesterday morning about ten o'clock three men, whose names ought to be given, a blacksmith, a carpenter and a fellow, abused themselves on Hotel street by holding a "quiet jollification" which disturbed the whole neighborhood. They were drunk and from appearances had reached the state where they thought they owned at least ten blocks apiece. It is pretty well understood that they bought their liquor on Hotel street in violation of the law. The police were unfortunately not around.

Last Saturday, No. 5, of the O Lupo Hawaiian, made its appearance. It is fully up to the mark of the preceding numbers and is replete with matter. The leading article on the present state of the population of these islands shows that the Portuguese element constitute one-seventh of the total population and more than one-fourth of the foreign population. Another article on the Honolulu settlement scheme published the names of Portuguese who have already applied for some of the land. The foreign, island and local news is well selected and interesting. The whole get-up of the paper shows how thoroughly Mr. Marques understands his business both as editor and practical man. He is no new hand at the types even.

The following information and advice, which seems to naturally dedicate itself to our over-the-way-neighbor, Mr. Joe Wiseman, was dropped in our letter box last Saturday by some one of our funny citizens whom we strongly suspect lives, during the day time, opposite the Palace on King street: "The sloop Lark—what will he do with her? Hang her up in his cigar stand to scratch matches upon; fix her up for the boys on Saturday when they go out for a lark; rub out the letter L and hire out the balance to the lodge; call her the Soo Park and carry passengers in opposition to Jim Dodd on race days; load up her main hatch with duck eggs and set her alongside the yacht club house; christen her the Nyuum yum and take all the pretty girls out for a sail; run her across the front of the new battery next time they fire a salute and get her blown into a Sky Lark; call her the Black and Tan and send her overland to New York to race against the Puritan; Chris—christen her the Miller and load her up with leis of flowers; oxshin her off to some butcher." Joe declares that as soon as he gets her bottom scraped and has new sails put on her he will race her against anything from a Government check to a Russian man-of-war.

The last game of base ball will take place this evening. It is understood that Mr. P. C. Jones Jr. will be captain of all the nines for the occasion and that those who eat the most in nine innings will be declared the winners. The following will be the menu: First inning—Oyster soup, Clam Chowder; second inning—Scalloped Kummu, fried mullet; third inning—boiled leg mutton with (goose) egg sauce, boiled ham, current jelly; fourth inning—roast goose, apple sauce, French peas, roast turkey, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce; fifth inning—German salad, rice and currie, chicken salad; sixth inning—Champion pudding "red hot," Oceanic pudding, hard sauce; seventh inning—Vanilla and strawberry ice cream; eighth inning—assorted fruits; ninth inning—tea and coffee, nuts and raisins. Three umpires and a scorer for each man have been chosen. If Wall doesn't put too much curve on Scotty will catch pudding in his mouth until the usual twenty-seven men step down and out.

Base Ball.

Before the commencement of the game between the Benedicts and the Hawaiis last Saturday, Levey, of the Married Men, wanted to have Mr. H. Whitney, of the Honolulu, for their second baseman; this was wisely refused by Captain Kaia of the Hawaiis. It may be said at this time the Married Men had enough of their own members on the spot to make up their nine, but wanted to have others, and after some talk, in order to make up a game, the captain of the Hawaiis allowed them to have E. A. Baldwin, of the Oceanics, for their second baseman.

There were not many spectators on the ground, although the playing of the Hawaiis was, no doubt, duly appreciated by those present. Many words of praise and encouragement were given them.

The Hawaiis nine were: Captain, Henry Kaia, short stop; David M. Mochonua, pitcher; John M. Bright, catcher; Frank Davis, first base; David Morton, second base; Horace Crabbe, third base; Josiah Kazukai, center field; Wm. Edmonds, right field; George D. Desha, left field.

The Benedicts' nine were: Captain, S. J. Levey, center field; Robert Parker, pitcher; Chauncey Wilder, catcher; B. F. Burgess, first base; E. A. Baldwin, second base; Chas. Alder, third base; J. Lishman, short stop; A. Rosa, left field; G. E. Boardman, right field.

In the third inning Mr. Boardman retired and his place was taken by Mr. F. Winter, who was put in left field. Mr. Rosa in center field Mr. Levey in right field.

David M. Mochonua, pitcher for the Hawaiis, was in fine trim, and pitched at his best, doing as well as any other pitcher has done this season. It may be said to his credit that he put out more men on three strikes than Parker of the Benedicts whose balls were freely batted by the Hawaiis scrubs.

The game was called by the umpire, Mr. H. M. Whitney, Jr. precisely at 3:30 o'clock and ended at 5:15. The Hawaiis went first to the bat. Mr. Whitney as umpire discharged his duty well and satisfactorily.

In the first two innings both sides scored zero. The Hawaiis in the first half of the third inning again scored another zero and the Married Men scored two by Rosa and Parker. In the fourth inning the Hawaiis scored one run by Desha and the Married Men were goosed. In the fifth inning the Hawaiis scored three runs by Kazukai, Crabbe and Kaia, and the score thereafter on both sides stood 4 to 2 in favor of the Hawaiis up to the end of the first half of the eighth inning. In the eighth inning the Married Men, scored six runs, by Baldwin, Parker, Levey, Burgess, Winter and Lishman. In the ninth inning, the Hawaiis made a strenuous effort to come up to their opponents and made two runs by Desha and Davies, which gave the Married Men the victory by a score of 8 to 6.

Fort-Street Church.

Text, Gal. V: 22, But the fruit of the Spirit is * * * * gentleness.

Our word "gentleness" is clipped from that older and better word, "gentlemanliness." Giving the word this broad and full meaning, the text tells us that gentlemanliness is the fruit of the spirit of God. What is a gentleman? The qualities which go into this make-up do not lie on the surface, or the outside. A tailor, or books on etiquette cannot make one. It is that fine grain of solid character which makes a man a gentleman. The true gentleman has a keen sense of honor. There are certain things he will not do. 1. He will not swear. Reverence is ingrained. 2. He will not lie. A shifty, shuffling, untruthful gentleman is an impossible creature. 3. Neither will he steal. Vulgar stealing is not meant. The fine sense of honor of a true gentleman will detect and shun fraud where it flourishes in a hundred respectable forms. So much negatively. Positively: The principles which make a man a gentleman are based upon and are the out-growth of character. God is behind all true genuine character. To say that a man has character is to say that he has clear vital convictions of right, truth and duty, and he follows these at all hazards. Of all the men that ever walked the earth who ranks the highest as the model man and perfect gentleman? With hushed voices, believers and unbelievers alike answer, "Jesus of Nazareth." His perfection consisted in His God-likeness. But "God-likeness" is only a longer form of the word "Godliness." Godliness then in the person of Christ Jesus had its highest exponent. He calls all men to follow Him and be like Him, gentlemen in the truest and highest sense of that word.

The Bethel Union Church.

The Rev. E. C. Oggel, pastor of the Bethel Union Church occupied his pulpit yesterday, morning and evening. "Christ the Life" was the theme of the morning discourse, based on the text: "I am the Life," John 1:46.

Two points were developed. The first, Christ is himself the life. And the second, Christ is the life in revelation to men. As the mind fixes itself on Jesus Christ it is lost in admiration of His excellencies. When He, the living one, exerts His saving power those astray and in peril come back to the fold; prodigals return to the father's house; the dead live and the lost are found; and the angels strike their harps with new vigor and swell their hallelujahs as the recording angel enters through the gates of pearl and announces the names of new converts as additional gems for the royal diadem of Christ the Lord.

In the evening the pastor preached a sermon to young people, the subject: "The Young People's Guide through life."

There were the following notices: Ladies' prayer meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock with a Bible reading by one of the ladies.

The Church prayer meeting on Wednesday evening. Subject: "The Inspiring Soul," Job 23:3.

The Church social on Thursday evening, October 1st, at the pastor's residence, where a cordial welcome will be extended to all.

On Friday evening young people's prayer meeting, Prof. Bates of Oahu College to lead.

Gospel Temperance meeting on Saturday evening.

Next Sunday morning the fourth in the series of sermons. Theme: "Christ All in All."

Hilo Notes.

At Puna the water has risen so high that the natives have moved back from the shore some distance and are alarmed.

The Hilo people are rejoicing in the prospect of soon having a skating rink in which they can slip up and sit down to their hearts content.

The sand found in large quantity around the wharf at Hilo, leaving it at least 24 feet from the water and all goods have to be carried ashore.

A kanaka and his wife who live at Hakalau were quarreling when the son-in-law in order to quiet his father-in-law struck him a violent blow on the neck with a large stick and killed him. The murderer was brought to Hilo by the sheriff and was remanded until the next term of Court at Hilo.

Church societies are doing much good in Hilo. Formality is usually thrown aside and all feel that they must have a pleasant meeting and young people usually look onward to these gatherings with pleasure. Festivities are of great variety usually, and the good things to eat and drink are usually of home make. Hilo pays much attention to her church gatherings which are held at private houses. The last one of the Foreign Church was held September 22nd at the house of Mr. C. C. Kennedy, Waialea, over a mile from Hilo; most all rode out on horseback or in carriages. The gathering was a large one, and all had a delightful time. These societies are usually held when there is moonlight.
